Student Conduct: The student handbook clearly defines appropriate classroom conduct. A student can be asked to leave the class for inappropriate conduct. You should not disrupt the class since you interfere with the learning process for your peers. Talking, sleeping, cell phones ringing, or other disruptive behaviors will result in a warning and then can result in the student being dropped from the class. If you must have a phone for sick children or emergency reasons, please put the phone on vibrate because a ringing/singing phone is very disruptive to the class.

Late Work and Missed Assignments: Work is due on the dates assigned and cannot be made up if missed. Assignments are due on the date assigned and there is a late penalty for each day the work is late.

Appeal Process: The process of appeal is outlined in the college catalog. Basically you would need to talk to the instructor, the department chair, and then the dean if the problem is not resolved. Be sure to always start with your instructor.

Writing Style: All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Grading Policy/Procedure: Your grade will be based upon a percentage of the total points with (900-1000 points) 90%=A; (800-899 points) 80%=B; (700-799 points) 70%=C; (600-699 points) 60%=D; (<599 points) 59% and below = F.

ALL EXAMS WILL BE COMPLETED ONLINE THROUGH BLACKBOARD.

On scheduled exams days, there will be no in-person class held. Students can choose to take the exam from any location where they are able to access a computer. The exams will be available in Blackboard for a specific amount of time, they will be timed, once a student opens the exam they will not be able to close their browser until the exam is complete. The exam questions will be randomized so that no 2 students will take the same exam.

Special Requirements: If you miss an exam, you cannot make it up, but there will be an optional CUMULATIVE final exam available which can be used to replace either your lowest score or an exam you missed. If you miss more than two exams, you will be asked to drop the class.

Projects/Assignments:

Writing Assignment (100 Points):

A topic will be presented related to development which impacts our society currently. For example, a discussion paper might be introduced asking you to explore the impact on 1st graders who had to attend school virtually during the pandemic. Additional instructions and a rubric will be provided before the 8th week of class. The paper will need to follow APA writing guidelines. For more information about APA writing style, please consult:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/apa_style/apa_formatting_and_style_guide/general_format.html

End of the semester project (200 Points): (choose one option)

1. Choose one the following Erikson stages (Adolescence, Young Adulthood, or Middle Adulthood) and interview someone who has passed that particular stage. For example, interview your 45 year-old mother about the Young Adulthood stage. Explain to your interviewee the specific crisis associated with the stage and then ask for an example of how your interviewee experienced this crisis.

Emphasize to your interviewee to only provide examples they feel comfortable sharing and inform them the experience will be read by your instructor. After the interview, provide a brief summary of the interview including your interviewee's response as well as your reaction to the experience.

OR

2. This option will focus on an area of assessment (for example, Red Flags for ...) pertaining to early childhood development and create a Fact Sheet, Poster, or Brochure for the community (child care providers, parents, etc.). The document should appear professionally useful and be informative, visually appealing, and appropriate for the intended audience. This should contain specific information about the topic, early signs or "red flags," and community resources for further assessment and intervention. As part of the preparation of this document, you will be required to incorporate information on your topic from 3 sources and provide a brief bibliography of these sources.
